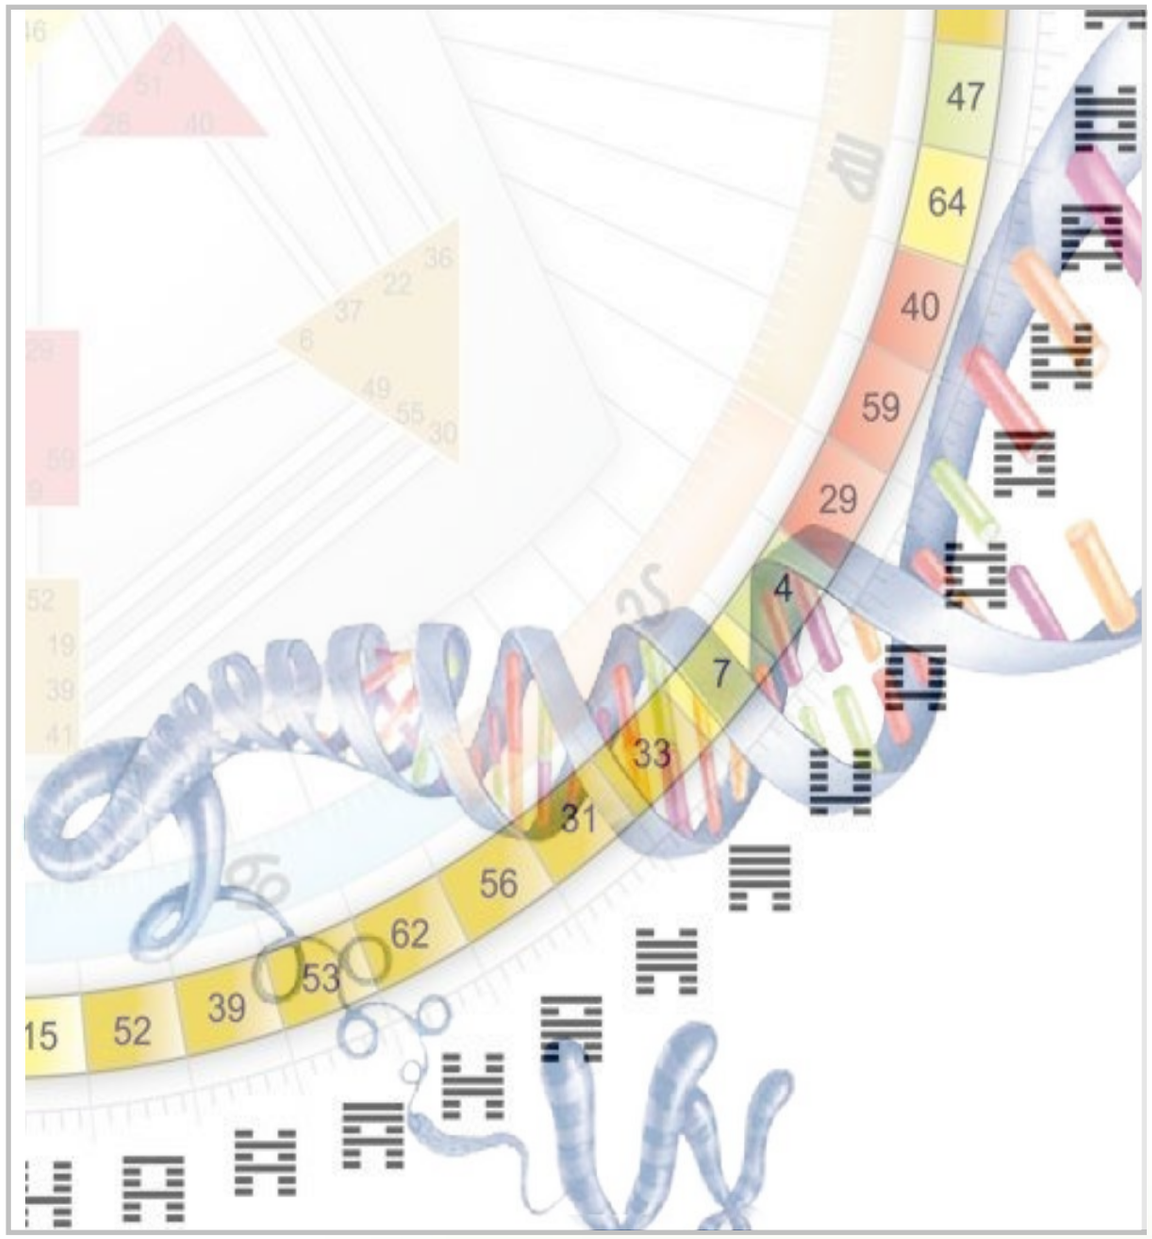
Your Treasure Map



"In the Human Design information, we have a treasure map. The map for each individual is accessible and available yet it requires study in order to understand its structure.

In learning to read your own map and to follow its path, you embark on a journey into the core of your being at a true cellular level.

Over a period of time you begin to see the changes that living truly who you are brings. It is the adventure of life and a journey we are all here to make. Enjoy the ride."

The True Self vs. The Not Self

Vital energy (the Self)

Openness (the Not-Self)

The True-Self

When we're operating out of our Strategy and Authority:

Our openness has the potential for deep wisdom.

We use our minds to watch the way our life works, taking us a huge step forward in the development of our consciousness and self love.

We can fulfill our purpose because our energy is not pulled away by trying to be what we are not.
